CAPT. TOM GRANT DEAD.

Prominent Indian Territory Pioneer Dies in Pauls Valley of Paralysis. Special to the Ardmoreite.

Pauls Valley, I. T., Oct. 27.—Capt. Tom Grant, well known throughout the entire territory, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, C. J. Grant, in this city, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis from which he has been suffering for the last few days. The remains were shipped last night to Davis from which place they will be conveyed for interment to the cemetery at old Fort Arbuckle, which has been the family home of deceased for more than a generation.

Deceased was one of the best known men in the Chickasaw Nation, and perhaps the best monument of pioneer days and the most tenacious figure in the spirit of progress in his part of the country.

He was born in Georgetown, Ky., 73 years ago, and was once a student under James G. Blaine, the celebrated Maine statesman in the Western Military Institute of Georgetown.

Mr. Grant came to Indian Territory over fifty years ago and has made this his home since that time. After the civil war when old Fort Arbuckle was abandoned as a military post of the government he purchased the reservation and all improvements from the interior department, and has held the lands which were put in cultivation for the occupation and employment of the forces formerly maintained at the old fort.

After his marriage to Miss Jane Love, a Chickasaw, and a daughter of Benjamin Love, who was one of the prominent members of the nation, and who was killed in the 40's, he was adopted into the tribe and allowed the peaceful pursuits of fortune and citizenship in the tribe with a right to participate in the lands and monies as any other Indian. Since that time his prosperity has been phenomenal. Of his children there are only three alive, the oldest, C. J. Grant, a man of middle age, is president of the First National bank of Pauls Valley and is rated at over one-half million dollars. C. M., a prominent stockman of Wynnewood, and Tom, Jr., who has always lived with his father at old Fort Arbuckle, five miles west of Davis.

Flood of new stoves, good stoves, old stoves and any kind of stoves at L. D. Mason's on North Washington street, the installment house. 7-1m

Royal Hungarians.

In speaking of "Matus and His Royal Hungarian Court Orchestra" the Philadelphia Item says: "In the details of shading, phrasing, and in general finish, it is certainly quite out of the reach of adverse criticism, and the unity and precision of its playing are a continual delight after the shabby and ragged 'Hungarian Orchestra' performances to which we have been accustomed." This superb orchestra is the first number on the Lyceum course list this season and will be at the opera house Tuesday night, Nov. 1. Get your season ticket prior to that date. 23-1f

HUNGARIAN ORCHESTRA, NOV. 1.

Orchestra for Ardmore.

A move is on foot to organize an up-to-date orchestra of some ten or twelve pieces, with Prof. Denke as conductor. The move is a good one for the town is badly in need of something of the kind.

Prof. Denke, who is in charge of the matter, was formerly leader of the cavalry band at Guthrie, and is a thorough musician. He came here highly recommended.

MATUS—NOVEMBER 1.

MILLINERY How Does It Look

Is a question that is always answered satisfactorily if the hat comes from us. It is a pretty broad statement but we honestly believe that there isn't an unbecoming hat in our store. But ladies are mighty particular about their Millinery. So the best way to test our statement is to come and try on the hats for yourself. Try as many as you like and stay as long as you like.

We want you to be perfectly satisfied with your hat in every particular. Even the prices have been placed at the little profit point to gain your good will.
